This morning's guest was Matt Page.

Today's meeting was held at Harrison High School and hosted by its Key Club. Current president Jacob Rexing told of their activities over this school year. They sold 350 Safe Halloween coupon books for Easter Seals (the most ever!), painted pumpkins, assembled and distributed 26 generous Thanksgiving baskets, provided toys for children at the Psychiatric Center at Christmas, and held a St. Valentine's/St. Patrick's party for Willow Park residents.

Officers for the 2010-2011 school year are:

- Christine Pham, President
- Hayley Bulger, Vice President
- Lisa Yanagida, Treasurer
- Ashley Brandenberger, Secretary

We were entertained by an ensemble from Harrison's concert choir with these selections:

Sunday Kind of Love, Traveling Train, and Rock My Soul. Choir member Reid Chancellor sang and played guitar on his original composition entitled Confession.

The next GRK board meeting has been postponed until May 14.

If you'd like to easily and painlessly (and at no extra cost to yourself) help out Easter Seals, see Gil

Bockelman. He has scrip cards for Schnucks—all you do is present the card to the cashier who swipes it and a percentage of your total is donated to Easter Seals.

The next GRK-out-to-eat-and-meet will be held May 11, at 6:00 at Wilson's General Store and Café, located at 11120 Broadway. Head west on the Lloyd Expressway and go past USI. Turn left at Busler's. Contact Jay Inman if you plan to attend.
